

LEVEL 3

LEARNING & DEVELOPMENT PRACTITIONER APPRENTICESHIP

with

What is this role / apprenticeship?

L&D Practitioners are typically involved with identifying learning / training needs, designing / sourcing training and learning solutions, delivering and evaluating training, and working with stakeholder / business area managers. The role focus is often on the practical delivery of training. The L&D Practitioner will typically have expertise and competence in their specific field whether it be technical, vocational or behavioural (e.g. use of software, food preparation, working in teams). They link the learning within their area of responsibility to business objectives and performance, understanding the learning cycle and working by it. The role can be more specialist, with a focus on and requiring in-depth expertise in a specific area of L&D such as learning design, e-learning or digital / blended learning. Whichever of these is an area of focus; the L&D Practitioner is future focused, understands the business context / culture and has a good grounding across the whole training and learning cycles.

How long does the apprenticeship take?

The apprenticeship will take between 18-24 months to complete.

What qualifications will the learner receive?

- Level 2 Certificate in Functional Skills English
- Level 2 Certificate in Functional Skills Mathematics
- Level 2 Certificate in ICT
- Institute for Apprenticeships Learning & Development Practitioner Level 3, achievable at Pass or Distinction.

What are the entry requirements?

There are no formal requirements to apply to do this apprenticeship, however, typically an apprentice will have an area of technical, vocational or behavioural expertise in which the organisation needs others to acquire through training.
